Urban Economic Development Association of Wisconsin

UEDA is a 501(c)(3) membership organization dedicated to the professional development of individuals and groups working in economic and community development in Wisconsin.

Our mission is to enhance cities and their residents by focusing on housing, economic development, and job creation.

MEMBERSHIP IMPACT

Since 1997 UEDA has increased communication, coordination and collaboration between and among its Members, assisting them to elevate their work in a meaningful way and build their capacity to effectively serve their clients and communities.

Our work has impacted the following areas of community and economic development:

Foreclosure Mitigation • Public Transportation Policy • Job Creation Initiatives
Sustainable Homeownership Programs • Small Businesses and Entrepreneur Resources
Regional Food Economy • Affordable Housing Development

Joining UEDA offers the opportunity to participate in events and projects that help forward economic development and job creation efforts for local communities in southeast Wisconsin.

In 2014, UEDA served over 194 individuals from 65 nonprofit organizations, businesses, and government agencies.

“UEDA does important work and raises the profile and visibility of community development issues very effectively. We are proud to work with UEDA as a collaborative partner.”
