

UEDA is pleased to announce our 2009 Community Development Brown Bag Series!

January 30, 2009

May 1, 2009

July 31, 2009

October 30, 2009

All CD Brown Bags will take place at the Nonprofit Center of Milwaukee Conference Room, located at 2819 West Highland Avenue, Milwaukee, WI.

Bring your lunch & your curiosity!

We'll bring assorted beverages.

PLEASE RSVP to Julia O'Connor at 414-430-4711 or trriage444@gmail.com for any of the upcoming CD Brown Bags.

These events are where members can welcome new staff and partners to the Community and Economic Development field, and provide them with information about the exciting work that is being performed by various organizations. It also provides an opportunity for veterans to reconnect and learn the W.I.G.O. (What Is Going On).

UEDA's Spring Brown Bag Featured Guest: May 1, 2009

- Michelle Barnes, Assistant Vice President with M&I Community Development Corporation
- Daniel Sweeney, Officer with M&I Bank Community Education

M&I Community Development Corporation (CDC) leads M&I's efforts to make significant investments to benefit low-and moderate-income individuals throughout M&I's service areas. Currently, the M&I CDC investment portfolio includes investments in low-income tax credits, equity equivalent investments, small business investment corporations and community development venture funds.

The mission of the M&I Community Education network is to equip its customers, and members of the communities in which they live and work, with the knowledge and tools needed to make sound decisions about their financial well-being, both in the short and long term.

We look forward to seeing you!
